Loudon Avenue Christian Church Scholarship Eligibility Guidelines 2026

The following guidelines provide a framework that the Scholarship Committee of Loudon Avenue Christian Church will use to determine eligibility for the annual scholarship awards. These guidelines provide an objective way to determine that all applicants meet the requirements necessary to be considered.

LACC Scholarship Eligibility Guidelines - College Student Renewable

Applicants must:

- Be actively engaged in life of Loudon Avenue Christian Church.
- Have a minimum grade point average of 2.3.
- Complete the application and submit it no later than 11:59 PM, on Friday, May 15, 2026.
- Submit a transcript: Last two semesters of grades.
- Provide proof of registration as a full-time student (minimum 12 hours). Students must carry 12 hours or have a letter from the school stipulating that fewer hours are considered full time.

Please Note: This scholarship is open to any student who is seeking post-secondary education. Postsecondary education is any education after graduation from high school. It includes accredited two- and four-year colleges, as well as accredited postsecondary career training programs. The term “college” is used as shorthand to indicate any type of accredited postsecondary education or training program.
